

PHILLIES NEGOTIATING ON WARPATH HERE, WHILE ATHLETICS SEEK SCALP OF YANKEES

PHILLIES WILL BATTLE GIANTS AT TOP SPEED ATHLETICS ARE PREPARED FOR FINAL SPRINT

Trouble With New York Last Year Inspires Men of Dooin to Tounce Visitors Soundly.

Increased Interest Here in Contests Caused by Braves' Great Fight for Flag in National League.

It is hardly fair to either the managers or the players of the clubs in the National League to assume that McGraw's statement, in which he remarked that everybody was against him, in truth, is a fact. It is a fact that the Phillies have a two-fold purpose in defeating the Giants, and if those efforts are in vain in the games staged at Broad and Huntingdon streets today and tomorrow, they will have a chance to assert that the local legion did not give the enemy all it had.

This afternoon the Giants and Phillies meet in another double-header. The first game will be called at 1:30 o'clock. Tuesday there will be only one game at the local National League Park, when the New Yorkers will make their final appearance of the season here against the Phillies.

Naturally there is a more vital interest in the approaching Philly-Giants game than there has been this year. With the Braves leading the New Yorkers in the dash for the pennant by a narrow margin, it is needless to say that the eyes of the entire baseball world will be turned on Philadelphia, anxiously awaiting the results of these contests.

MARTY FRANK'S Pithy Notes And Comment

A poet in the average mind wears flowing hair and an' eats one meal a week. We think of him as some queer kind of nut whose soft an' hly hand is a tribute an' weak. It's hard to even look at all of any poet playin' ball. Ye gods, that couldn't be! An' if there was a poet, would you dare to seek him in the "base ball"? They've got one station 3.

George Morality is the gent—the poet of the "base ball." An' he's a good one, too. An' yet to see George work at third a feller wouldn't believe a word of what I say is true. This handsome, six-foot athlete writes a lot of "rhyming" stuff, but he's no poet. He writes an' rhymes an' when he's done he's there to beat out his league guys.

George isn't a "colb" at battin', but he plays four hundred with his nut, the whole nine innings through. An' he's a good one, too. An' yet to see George work at third a feller wouldn't believe a word of what I say is true. This handsome, six-foot athlete writes a lot of "rhyming" stuff, but he's no poet. He writes an' rhymes an' when he's done he's there to beat out his league guys.

Where will the next set of Olympics be held? That question is an interesting one. It is a pretty safe bet that they will not be staged at scheduled heart of the war country. America has not been a far-fetched suggestion, would it be a great game held here? Adequate arrangements could be made for the reception of the athletes and the spectators. New Yorkers, no doubt, would like to have it held at Meadowbrook, as that place has already been pointed out as a suitable place for the development of a fine athletic field.

Men in Good Shape to Put Yankee Team on Run and to March Through the West.

Collins, Barry, Schang and Lapp, Fully Recovered From Injuries, Now Playing Up to Standard.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Connie Mack's recently bumped hand of ball jugglers appear to be themselves again. They no longer are on the ragged edge of a tumble, and again they feel confident that they will not only capture the games here today and Tuesday, but they will make their second successive triumphal march through the west, clinching the flag before they are again seen within the confines of Shibe Park, Philadelphia.

What has been characterized as a slump, was not a slump, properly speaking. To be sure, the champions dropped four straight to the Red Sox on their last visit to Boston; broke even with the Nationals in Washington in a four-game series, and tied the Red Sox in Philadelphia in what proved to be a two-game series, owing to the tie contest played on last Friday.

Now, however, things have taken on their customary rosy hue for the White Elephants. All of the maimed are in good shape. Both Schang and Lapp are able to get in the game and Collins and Barry showed in their work against the Yankees on Saturday that they are ready to set the West afire with their wonderful performances around the keystone bag.

Manager Chance will be indeed fortunate if he is able to land one of the two games on tap for the local fans. Mack has given his orders that he wants the pennant won at the earliest date possible regardless of the effects on gate receipts. The players have responded to his instructions and are preparing to give Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago and St. Louis clubs a severe set of drubbings after they leave the metropolis.

The Yankees resemble a second division club now considerably more than they did when the Mackmen were here on their last visit. The play of the American Leaguers at the Polo Grounds has been anything but a joy to the fans, the chances are that no attendance records will be broken either this afternoon or Tuesday.

Rod and Gun

Contributions Asked
Thousands of sportsmen interested in rod and gun pastimes are invited to contribute articles of a personal sort to the Evening Ledger's columns. Reports of fishing trips, successes in the field and general newsy tid-bits will be given consideration.

Pennsylvania Trap Centre
It may not be generally known but it is a fact that Pennsylvania leads all other States in the number of clubs promoting trap-shooting sport. Data compiled by the Trappers' National Bureau, of this city, shows this advantage.

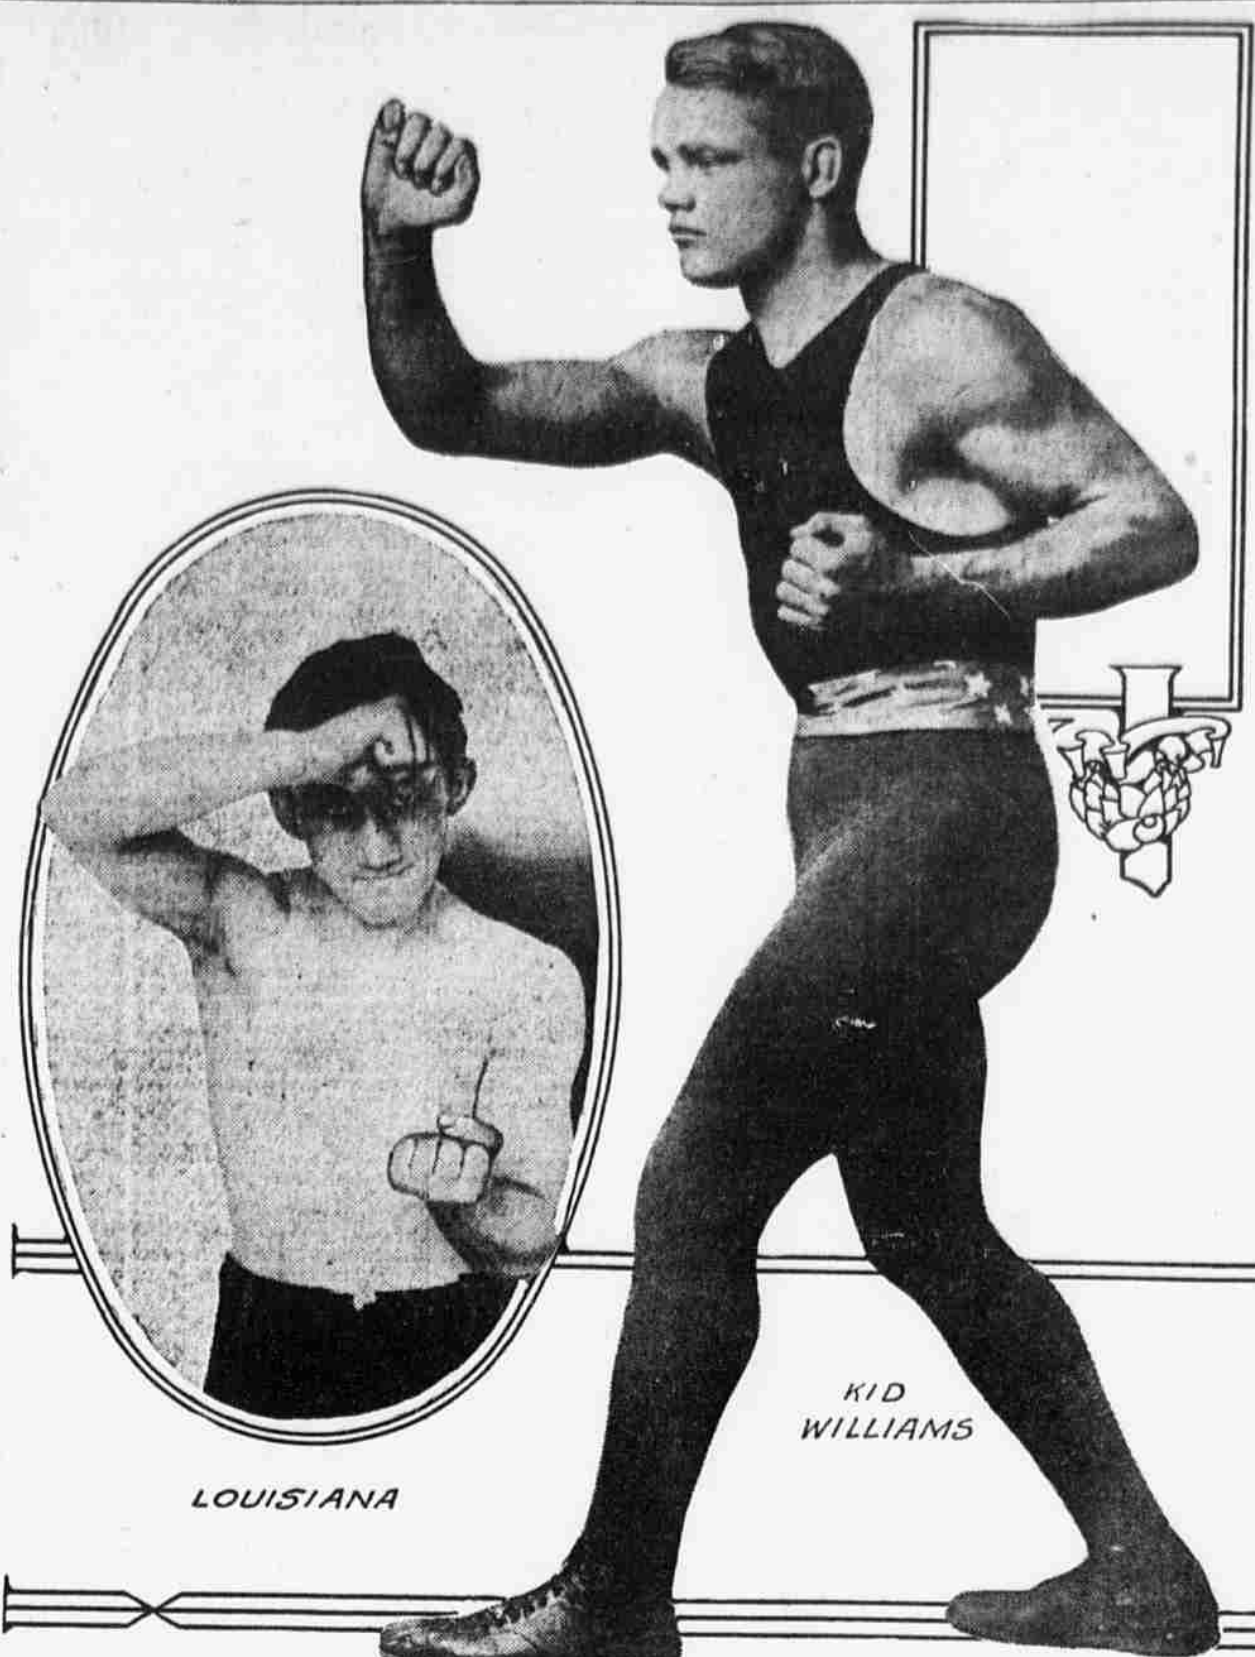

Closed Season for Quail
Essex County, Mass., has closed the season on quail for five years in the hope of increasing the few that now exist there.

Passenger Pigeons Gone
The question has been asked, "Do you think there is a passenger pigeon in existence?" to which the answer "no" is given. The countless millions of these birds, which once shut out the sunshine by their numbers in flight in various sections, have been so wantonly destroyed that not a single bird is alive today.

Big Shoot Tomorrow
Atlantic City will be the Mecca for the trapshooting experts of all sections of the country tomorrow, when the annual Westy Hogan tournament will be got underway. This treat is always eagerly looked forward to by the hundreds of the guns, and a royal good time is in store if the work of the promoting officials is to be taken as any criterion.

Pleasing Thoughts
Men of business, whose cares are great are longing for the thrills and joys that follow their annual excursions to well-known ducking grounds, woods and fishing streams. The ducking days are fast approaching, but will not arrive any too soon for the real sportsman.

Protect Niagara Fish
Seine fishing for bass in the middle of the Niagara River, or from the islands in the river above the Falls, will not be permitted at any time. Rod fishing is permissible. Inshore seine setting will be permitted, as, because of the river pollution, there are no game fish in that part.

KID WILLIAMS-LOUISIANA, FIGHTERS
These two clever little bantamweight fighters are scheduled to furnish the fireworks in the main bout at the Olympia Athletic Association tonight. Kid Williams is the present world's bantam champion, having knocked out Johnny Coulon on the Pacific Coast. Louisiana is one of the cleverest battlers developed in this city in years.

Inbred in Baseball

Not satisfied with casting his bread upon the waters of the Federal League, John M. Ward is now said to be supplying Weeghman's restaurants.

The Giants now have Smith, Erickson, Huenke and Brainerd. They are classed as recent purchases. That doesn't mean, however, that McGraw lost his purchase in the league race.

It was a big drop for the Orioles to land in Wilmington after having been in Baltimore so long. In fact, a true knock-out drop.

Joe Jackson indignantly resents being called "Shoelless Joe," which is ample proof that the story is true.

They do say that Larry Lajole is going back. It looks the other way round to us. He has just moved from second to first.

The National Commission has made all arrangements and has given the details for the approaching world's series with the exception of the betting odds. It is understood that the voting on that question was not unanimous.

When William Penn made his treaty with the Indians some 200 years ago, he must have had a hunch that Chief Bender and Ben Tincup were going to prove useful members of this community.

If Ira Thomas is organizing a baseball fraternity all his own, it will doubtless be of Whistling-Rufus-the-One-Man-Band vintage.

George Stallings is characterized as the real reserve strength of the Braves—i. e., he is a reserve. Which is our unbelieveable idea of nothing to be at this particular epoch in the world's history.

Hortor's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

William Boothby, who has been the man behind the check book at the National Athletic Club, has sold out his interests in that club, and Manager McGuigan is now in entire control.

Rumors of the formation of a big club in West Philadelphia with Jack Hanlon, the former matchmaker of the Olympia, at the head, will not do. It is said that a large car barn in an easily accessible part of the city has been secured and that after alterations are made the seating capacity will be over 200.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

HORTER HANGS HIS SPIKED SHOES UP FOR GOOD AND ALL

Meadowbrook Club Runner Decides to Quit the Game at Which He Has Been So Successful—Other Notes.

Eddie Horter, who for many years has been this city's leading sprinter among the local club athletes, has decided to put away his spikes for all time and devote his attention to business. Horter was a star of the first water from the very day he tried his hand at the running game back in 1907. His career has been one string of successes from that time.

Titles galore have fallen to the skill of the little Meadowbrook boy, but far and away his best season was in 1913, when, as a member of Jimmy Mulligan's Georgetown University team, he twice turned the century in 10 seconds flat and in the Southern Intercollegiate on Homewood Field, Baltimore, he set a new record of 50 seconds for the quarter. It still stands.

Horter's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horter's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horter's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horter's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horter's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horter's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horter's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horter's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horter's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horter's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horter's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Roped Arena Notes

Besides the Williams-Louisiana bout tonight the Lancaster A. C. will inaugurate its 25th season with a bout between Harry Wagner, of this city, and Johnny Greiner, of Lancaster. Harry Hensel will continue as owner and manager.

Fans will have the choice of going to Lew Bailey's Palace A. C. in Norris-town, for a ten-round bout between Johnny Krause and Eddie McAndrews, or to the Fairmount A. C. tomorrow night, where a six-round battle will be staged between two big fellows, Otto Hughes, who claims to be the middle-weight champion of the Marine Corps, and Tyrone Costello, a North Penn husky.

Dame Rumor has it that Jimmy Dougherty, the Lehighville sporting man and manager of Willie Adams and Jack Blackburn, has acquired a financial interest in the Fairmount A. C.

William Boothby, who has been the man behind the check book at the National Athletic Club, has sold out his interests in that club, and Manager McGuigan is now in entire control.

Rumors of the formation of a big club in West Philadelphia with Jack Hanlon, the former matchmaker of the Olympia, at the head, will not do. It is said that a large car barn in an easily accessible part of the city has been secured and that after alterations are made the seating capacity will be over 200.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

Horner's announcement of his withdrawal from amateur athletics will be a sad blow to his many friends.

PENN'S ELEVEN LAST UNDER WAY THIS SEASON

The Local Squad Starts From Scratch in the Big Intercollegiate Gridiron Marathon.

Some Universities Have Fallen From Grace by Breaking Unwritten Rule Against Summer Training.

By EDWARD R. BUSHNELL
Pennsylvania's football squad starts from scratch this year in the big intercollegiate gridiron race. While all of their rivals have had a handicap of from one to two weeks' start in the matter of preliminary practice, the Quakers are the last to get under way. On the field of all the other members of the "Big Six"—by which we mean Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Cornell, Dartmouth and Pennsylvania—coaches have been testing new and old candidates. It was not until today that Coach George H. Brooke and Captain Albert Journeay had a chance to meet and size up the athletic youths who hope to wear the red and blue.

Some of the big universities have rather mer, or a too-long extended, preliminary fallen from grace in the matter of observing the unwritten rule against summer practice. There isn't any intercollegiate agreement respecting this practice, but by common consent it was discontinued several years ago by virtually all of the big universities of the East on the theory that it was not exactly fair. But gradually all the others have been advancing the date for calling out candidates, and although not one has begun as early as September 1, several have come perilously near it. The colleges of the Middle West met the issue by a signed agreement not to begin preliminary practice more than two weeks in advance of the opening of their universities.

This year Pennsylvania is the only university in the East which has rigidly adhered to the old understanding. Last year, when the Quaker coaches saw that their rivals were calling out their candidates before the middle of September, George Brooke asked for permission to call out his candidates at the end of the first week in September. But the Pennsylvania Committee, under the chairmanship of T. Truxton Hare, peremptorily refused this request on the ground that it was not fair. The same position was taken this year although all of Pennsylvania's championship rivals have the advantage of an early start.

PITCHES NO-HIT GAME
STAMFORD, Conn., Sept. 14.—William Walsh, of New Britain, captain of the Stamford College baseball team, pitched a no-hit-no-run game here yesterday for Stamford, Stamford beating Port Chester, 2 to 0. Walsh struck out eight players. Walsh's pitching record here this season is 13 games won and 3 lost.

LOCAL EXPERTS TO TAKE PART IN BIG SHOOT

Westy Hogan Trap Tournament at Atlantic City Tomorrow Attracts Finest Marksmen of America.

Philadelphians to Vie With Others in Tests of Skill for Fame and Glory—Lasts Entire Week.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 14.—Five squads of Philadelphians will face the traps in the monster Westy Hogan tournament at Venice Park here tomorrow afternoon. The cream of the Philadelphia talent and vicinity will be included. Charles Newcomb, probably one of the most popular shooters in the East, heads the delegation from Philadelphia. He won last year's high amateur championship honors out of a total of 230 entrants. For this title Newcomb broke 43 out of a possible 500. Jesse C. Griffith, also of Philadelphia, tied for the Westy Hogan amateur championship at singles last year, cracking 99 out of 100. Jay Clark, Jr., in the shoot-off won. George McCarty, former national title holder; Vincent Oliver, Frank Pratt, Harry Sloan, F. M. Earnes and Fred Coleman are among others entered from Philadelphia.

Al. Hell, E. N. Gillespie, L. E. Mallory, Jr., J. C. Griffith and Ed. Hellyer, Jr., who last year brought the championship laurels to Pennsylvania in the State team race, are on hand again for this classic.

Woolfolk Henderson, who last week accomplished the unprecedented performance of winning both the National Amateur Championship at singles, as well as the doubles in the Grand American Handicap held at Dayton, O., heads the long list of stars ready for the feature program. Henderson, by the way, holds the championship of Kentucky, and will captain that quintet for the State race. Walter S. Behm, of Reading, who holds the title in Pennsylvania, has been the last to join the ranks. Dr. W. H. Matthews, of Trenton, N. J.; P. S. Wright, of South Wales, N. Y.; A. B. Richardson, of Dover, Del.; William Ridley, of What Cheer, Ia.; W. A. Wiedebusch, of Fairmount, W. Va.; and F. G. Fuller, of Detroit, Mich.; all champions of their home State, are among other notable in the game to face the traps tomorrow.

GUNS	$8 Up—Hammer
	$12 Up—Hammerless
	500 new and slightly used high-grade guns, including Scotts, Parker Bros., Levee, Smith, Remington, Fox, American Club, etc. Every gun guaranteed.
Fridenberg's Loan Office Cor. 9th and Buttonwood Sts.

HUDSON Six-40

This Year $1,550 F.O.B. Detroit

Look Ahead The Old-Type Car is Passing

Ideals have changed on motor cars, and the old-type cars are never coming back. Bear that in mind in choosing a new car now. Men will not go back to Fours—Nor to over-prices—Nor to overweight. All the over-taxes which HUDSON engineers have ended will soon disappear for good.

Moderation Now

The HUDSON Six-40 typifies the new ideal in cars. Modest in size, yet with ample room for seven. Light, yet immensely sturdy. Good engineering and costly materials have eliminated 1,000 needless pounds. It is so economical that on all sides you hear owners talking of the wonderful mileage they are obtaining on a minimum of gasoline, oil and tires.

And so handsome—so perfectly equipped—that former cars seem crude in comparison. You will see in this car scores of new attractions.

Times have changed when a car like this can be sold for $1,550. Here is a car of the highest class—the leading car of the day. Its quality shows in its lightness—in every line and detail. And Howard E. Coffin is its designer-in-chief.

Come see if this car meets your conception. See the advances made. Since last year's model, HUDSON engineers have added 31 refinements.

Gomery-Schwartz Motor Car Co.
253 North Broad Street, Philadelphia.
Phone Filbert 2164
IMMEDIATE DELIVERIES

Fall and Winter Suitings and Overcoatings

AWAITING YOUR INSPECTION is a stock replete with the finest foreign and domestic fabrics. Fortunately all were bought before the war—and at a saving which we shall gladly share with our customers as long as the present stock lasts.

Trousers A Specialty JONES
1116 Walnut Street.

HOTEL MAJESTIC The Ideal Apartment Hotel BROAD AND GIRARD AVENUE

Offers the greatest value with the least expenditure for long and short term apartment leases. The present practical management desires to fill every vacant suite at moderate prices, besides making a liberal discount for all food supplies to regular guests, with the service of a thoroughly high-class French kitchen. Attractive 2, 3 and 4-room suites, furnished or unfurnished, now open for inspection—and contracts will be promptly completed. All inquiries will receive the personal attention of the management, who will fully demonstrate to possible guests the economy of apartment hotel life, with home comforts and hotel conveniences.

Our Leading Soft Hat "THE KEEBLER"

Fortunately we have received the celebrated hats of Christy & Co., London, for whom we are the sole agents.

$3.00 and upwards

1428 Chestnut St. 103 S. 13th St.